Accompanying/organizing workshops and seminars

You want to design an internal workshop or seminar and would like to involve someone with a neutral view of your own company and processes? This offer is the right solution for you.

Our service for you includes the following points amongst others:

- Preliminary discussion of the event with regard to all organizationally important details
- Shared organisation of the event in cooperation with you
- Execution of the event as moderator
- Summarizing and presenting all results
- Feedback meeting

Would you like to know more? Feel free to give us a call or contact us by email.