Process consulting active sourcing

auteega offers you competent process consulting in the HR area for the introduction of proactive recruiting processes that give you the decisive advantage in the competition for the best employees.

We analyze your existing recruiting processes, develop the optimal strategy for you and support your employees with trainings for the implementation.

Clear, pragmatic and in a fitting way for your corporate culture!

Within the scope of the introduction of proactive recruiting processes, auteega GmbH can support you in the following areas, among others:

- Optimization of the application management
- Selection of suitable searching tools
- Optimization of search strategy and syntax
- Improvement of candidate communication
- Employer branding
- Integration of social media platforms into the recruiting process
- Streamlining the requirements analysis