Mediation in permanent appointments

With the increasing shortage of skilled labor, it is becoming increasingly difficult for companies to find the right employees in the professional and managerial sector. auteega GmbH offers its clients assistance in the placement of technical and management personnel on a permanent basis, filling their open vacancies. We place great emphasis on a thorough analysis of all requirements of the vacant position, the implementation of an extensive search, as well as a qualified pre-selection, in order to exclusively present suitable candidates. This process brings candidates and business-side decision makers together quickly and effectively.

Further advantages:

- Reduction of recruiting costs
- Expansion of the search radius
- Quicker fulfillment of vacant positions
- Minimization of time and recruiting effort
