

Our client is a dynamic and innovative software company for CAD/CAM software in the field of medical technology.

For the location in Darmstadt our client is looking for a qualified:

Senior BA (Business Analyst) - GPO (Business Process Owner (m/f/d) - 40%-60% remote possible

Job-ID: CF-00004140

Job-Ort: Darmstadt

Main tasks:

- Clarify business ideas for our new products
- Create the primary product benchmarks
- Validate the requirements - assure compliance of the development outcomes within the defined business goals
- Standardize the software development process - assure that the single workflow with promised requirements is applied, and ensure that product improvements are according to the obtained data
- Support global roadmap projects and drive the global process vision for standardization while meeting operational efficiencies, customer experience and future scalability
- Identify and resolve communication gaps to ensure alignment on key global process responsibilities across functions, regions and projects
- Organize, plan and facilitate the development of new global process standards and the associated procedures/training
- Active monitor process compliance and KPIs to address integrity issues

Your technical qualifications:

- BS, MS, or Ph.D. in a relevant discipline like Software Engineering, Computer Science or related field
- Previous experience in similar / relevant position
- 5+ years of professional experience with background in process improvement, Operations, program management, change management and/or ERP implementation and governance
- Extensive experience with business processes in sales ops, operations, accounting or controlling
- You are experienced in documentation and visualization
- Fluent verbal and written English
- Very good verbal and written German

Your personal qualifications:

- You are an analytical thinker, a decision-maker and a problem-solver
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills required with the ability to interface with product teams, as well as internal/external customers

Our client offers:

Exciting and varied activities in a dynamic and growth-oriented software company. You can expect flat structures and efficient decision-making processes. You can look forward to a positive working atmosphere that promotes both individual freedom and responsibility. Furthermore, you can expect a strong team spirit and a very good working atmosphere as well as modern offices and workplaces. Flexible working hours and home office options are a matter of course.

Ihr Ansprechpartner:

Cagla Özcan

auteega GmbH
Kaiserring 14-16
68161 Mannheim

Telefon: +49 621 122 664 12

E-Mail: cagla.oezcan@auteega.com

Jetzt bewerben